

WOMEN'S RIGHTS: Me Too & You Too

"Leftists are not cool-headed logicians systematically analyzing the foundations of knowledge. They are deeply involved emotionally in their attack on truth and reality."

— Theodore Kaczynski

Gloria Steinem and the feminists of the 1970s opened Pandora's Box. Little did they know that the very logic behind their brand of feminism would birth transgenderism, and that transgenderism would eventually begin to devour women's rights.

The latest issue of Vogue magazine, a leading voice for feminism, has a photo spread promoting actress, Michaela Jae Rodriguez, a transgender woman. In promoting transgenderism, is Vogue trying to commit suicide?

One is reminded of something Vladimir Lenin used to say: "We will hang the capitalist West, and they will sell us the rope to do it." Feminists have sold the rope to the transgender movement, and they will hang feminism from the gallows of outdated ideas.

DEMOLITION DERBY [Circa 2022]

Baby Boomers remember the Demolition Derby. A bunch of hot rods with numbers on their sides and driven by daredevils, would gather on the dirt floor of an arena. Lining up on a figure-eight track, they'd all take off at full speed, coming into the same intersection from different directions. The object was to get through that crossroads without being hit by other cars.

The raucous crowd, made up of the sort of folk who go to World Wrestling Federation extravaganzas, would be on the edge of their seats, waiting for that inevitable collision at the intersection. Invariably someone would misjudge, smashing into another car, causing something like a pile-up on an LA Freeway. Cars too damaged to continue would be pulled off the track, and the mayhem would resume—sometimes for two or three hours—until finally one car, in this automotive version of Russian Roulette, was left on the track as the winner of the Demolition Derby.

Demolition Derby has gone the way of Roller Derby, disco dancing and polyester leisure suits. But in the past decade it has made a comeback in progressive social and political causes that are about to crash head-on into each other.

Two of those are feminism and transgenderism. They are both born of the same idea, as are so many of the progressive agendas that are seducing our kids today.

Feminism was born of the idea that women didn't have to abide by God's created order.

THE PERVISION OF REALITY

If we are going to figure out how to stop the insanity—and mostly, how to help our children and grandkids see it for what it is—we need to return to the Biblical view of reality. Please allow me to take you to Romans One, and sketch out Paul's discussion about how reality is perverted. Though he wrote this some 1900 years ago, Paul's letter to the Romans is as relevant as tomorrow's headlines.

1. Real Reality. [Romans 1:18-20]

a) divine revelation. [vs. 19]

b) natural revelation. [vs. 20]

2. Aspirational Reality. [vs. 18]

3. Human-Created False Reality. [v. 22; 21-27]

4. Suppressed real Reality. [vs. 18]

KEEPERS OF REALITY IN A FAUX AGE

- 1. God has called us to tell the emperor that he has no clothes.
[Matthew 5:13-16]
- 2. God has told us to train our children in the truth.
[Deuteronomy 6:4-9]
- 3. We need to obey God in all things. [Revelation 2&3]

We live today in a world that embraces false realities. We must teach our children those realities that are true. More importantly, we must live them with integrity—not only in the big things, but even in the smallest of God’s truths [for, if they are God’s truths, none can be small enough to ignore].
